

Registration

Please send your registration by 11th January 2010 to Charlotte Oster
E-mail: charlotte.oster@jamtli.com Telephone: +46 (0)10 476 8927

Costs

The conference cost is 2 500 SEK.

Payment details will be sent to you when we receive your registration. The cost includes lectures, lunch both days and dinner on Wednesday evening. Coffee will be served during the breaks.

Accommodation

Accommodation can be booked at Clarion Hotel Grand Östersund. The price for a single room is 1195 SEK/night and double room 1395 SEK/night. This is booked via telephone: +46(0)63 55 60 00 or by Email: titti.myren@choice.se.

Hotell Emma. Single room 700 SEK/night. Telephone +46 (0) 63 517840

Hotell Zäta. Single room 695 SEK/night and 795 SEK/night. Telephone +46 (0) 63 517860.

Travel

If you travel by aeroplane to Östersund you can fly via Stockholm with SAS. If you want to travel by train you do this via Stockholm with SJ. If you come from Norway you can use NABO-tåget from Trondheim.

More information will be supplied together with your registration confirmation or you can simply contact Charlotte Oster E-mail: charlotte.oster@jamtli.com
Telephone: +46 (0)10 476 8927

Read more about Östersund on www.turist.ostersund.se

Box 709, 831 28 Östersund,
nck@nckultur.org, www.nckultur.org

Bilder: NCK och Jamtli

Parchment & Rune Stones Heritage Learning about older times

NCK's Conference

3-4 February 2010

This is an invitation to The Nordic Centre of Cultural Heritage Learning Conference in Östersund, Sweden 3-4 February 2010.

The programme for the conference is for those who are interested in learning methods within the archive-, museum-, art-, and the cultural environment sector. The aim of the conference is to develop and increase the quality in cultural heritage learning by offering exciting lectures and seminars. NCK have invited renominated international lecturers which will share their experiences and knowledge with us during the conference.

Our keynote-speakers come from Canada, France, Sweden, Norway, Island and Great Britain.

Wednesday 3 February 2010

- 10.00 -10.30 Registration and coffee at Jamtli kafé
- 10.30 -10.45 Welcome
- 10.45 -12.00 Christine Castle
"What are the main tendencies in museum education right now?"
- 12.00 -13.30 Lunch
- 13.30 -14.30 Ulf Zander
"Stormaktstidens uppgång och fall - Gustav II Adolf och Karl XII 1890-2010"
("The Rise and Fall of the Swedish Empire - Gustav II Adolf och Karl XII 1890-2010")
- 14.30 -15.00 Coffee at Jamtli kafé
- 15.00 -16.00 Christoph Barret
"Making the Middle Age better known: the experience of educational service of the Archives nationales"
- 16.00 -17.45 Parallell Seminars
- 17.45 To the hotel
- 19.00 - Dinner and announcement of the NCK award

Thursday 4th February 2010

- 09.00 -10.00 Ann Siri Garberg
"Hvordan formidle middelalderen?"
("How do you Mediate the Middle Ages?")
- 10.00 -10.30 Coffee at Jamtli kafé
- 10.30 -11.30 Work in progress
Deltagarna får chansen att berätta om pågående projekt
- 11.30 -13.00 Lunch
- 13.00 -14.00 Jon Kenny
"Making the most of archaeology in York: Community and Learning with York Archaeological Trust"
- 14.00 -15.00 Gisli Sigurdsson
"Why are the manuscripts so important in Iceland? - And how do we show that in an exhibition?"
- 15.00 -15.15 Round up
- 15.15 - Coffee at Jamtli kafé

PARALLELL SEMINARS

Wednesday 3rd February 2010, Time: 16.00-17.45
Separate programme will be published on www.nckkultur.org

Remember! when booking your place at the conference, to inform us, whether you want to present a project or piece of work in the "Work in progress" session.
Thursday 4th February 2010, Time: 10.30-11.30

Dr. Christine Castle, Initiater and Editor of the monthly newsletter The Museum Education Monitor. Christine is very active in Cultural Heritage Learning and Museology.

Dr. Ulf Zander, works as a Research Assistant at The University of Lund. He is also working as a University Lecturer at The University College for Learning and Communication in Jönköping.

Dr. Jon Kenny, Community Archaeologist for York. Jon runs The Greater York Community Archaeology Project York. His work involve people and communities in discovering the past that is all around them.

Prof. Gisli Sigurdsson, from Arni Magnusson Institute in Reykjavik. Gisli works with oral history and traditions from the Middle Ages to Modern Times. Gisli also teaches at The Stavanger University in Norway.

Ann Siri Garberg, Head of Exhibitions, Learning and Public Services and Curator at Sverresborg, Norway.

Christoph Barret, Managager for the Education Department and the different International outreach partnership programmes at the Archives Nationales in France. Christoph is also a History and Geography teacher.